- North Dakota Superintendent of Schools Student Cabinet
 - Tristan Orton, a 5th grader at Lincoln Elementary, is one of 19 North Dakota students to make up State Superintendent Kirsten Baesler's Student Cabinet. Tristan's role on this cabinet is to serve for 18 months and provide information about what is happening in his District, input on new ideas, and new topics for discussion. They had their first meeting in September and had some very good discussions about Juuling in schools, bullying and they each shared what it is like to go to school in their areas. Tristan truly enjoyed his first meeting and is looking forward to the next one.
- Association of Fundraising Professionals, Northern Plains Chapter
 - Olivia Seaks, Lincoln Elementary 4th grader, and Rhett Seaks, Dickinson Middle School 6th grader, were honored at the National Philanthropy Day luncheon and awards ceremony hosted by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Northern Plains Chapter. The event was held at the Fargo Hilton on November 15. Olivia and Rhett, along with their family, have raised funds towards medical expenses for an elementary student who has brain cancer.

Athletic Recognitions

- Dickinson High School Cross Country, All-West Region, Bismarck
 - Dickinson High School Junior Symone Beld placed 17th, Dickinson High School Junior Aiden Jung placed 9th, and Dickinson High School Sophomore Brady Yoder was the WDA individual Cross Country Champion.
 - Aiden Jung and Brady Yoder were also named to the All-State Cross Country team based on their performance at the state meet in Jamestown.
 - The Dickinson High Cross Country team is coached by Dickinson High Science Instructor Greg Jung along with Dakota Hayes, Josh Kralicek, and Ashly Kraenzel.
