

2018 National School Board Conference Summary Report - San Antonio, TX

Kim Schwartz

The opportunity to attend the National School Board Conference is an educational opportunity that further solidifies the importance of public education. To be surrounded with like-minded school leaders is invaluable in helping to shape the future progress of Dickinson Public Schools in the foreseeable future.

Once again, thank you for this professional development opportunity.

Friday 4/6

- High-Performing Governance Teams: Strategies to Reach the Next Level
- Understanding the Key Work of School Boards

Saturday 4/7

- Opening General Session - Terry Bradshaw
- Happier, Smarter, and More Engaged Students. Can Design Do That?

Study Hall - Effective Management of School Bond Program Capital Improvements

Study Hall - The Black Panther Movie: What it Taught Us About Leadership and Engaging Family Cultures

- The Adverse Childhood Experience
- Future Trends and CTE: What's on the Horizon for Today's Students?

Sunday 4/8

- General session - Ann Compton - "Fake News"
- A System of Servant Leadership - An Effective School Board/Superintendent Partnership

Study Hall - Safe & Secure Schools, Not Bunkers

Study Hall - Teaching Music as Diverse as the Students we Serve