

The Foundation’s mission is “to provide private, financial support to enrich the quality of education in the Dickinson Public Schools.”

2017 Scholarship Winners

The Dickinson Public Schools Foundation recently announced the following scholarship awards.

Sarah Dobitz was awarded the Jack Carlson Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship was developed to continue Mr. Carlson’s legacy of “making a difference in the lives of young kids.” This is the 12th year of the $1,000 scholarship awarded by the Carlson family to a Dickinson High School graduating senior. Sarah will be attending Dickinson State University pursuing a degree in special education.

Presley Weiler was awarded the Ruth Lenz Memorial Music Scholarship. This scholarship was established by the Lenz family to continue Ruth’s love of music. Presley is pictured with Harry Lenz. She will be attending Dickinson State University pursuing a degree in music.

Michael Herauf was awarded the Michael Callahan Hockey Scholarship at the Dickinson Hockey Banquet. Michael will be attending the University of Minnesota pursuing a degree in architecture.

The Dickinson Public Schools Foundation manages the scholarship funds

Foundation Awarded Grants

The Foundation awarded $40,765.75 in grants in spring of 2017.

The following were awarded grants:

- Hot Marimbas in Middle School/Professional Development Training – Laurae Dykema, Dickinson Middle School - $12,702
- Self Regulation for Success – Amber Fridley, Lincoln Elementary - $10,000
- Library MakerSpace – Marcus Lewton, Dani Paiz, Susan Moberg – Dickinson Middle School & Dickinson High School - $7,700
- Classroom Aquaponics: A Closed Resource Loop Project – DHS Environmental Science Class, Elisa Kensinger (teacher) – Dickinson High School - $1,000
- Bringing PCR to Dickinson High School – Dena Venneman – Dickinson High School - $9,034.75
- Welding – Clarence Hauck – Dickinson High School, $252

Dickinson High School Hall of Fame

Left to right: Jess (Herauf) Lehman, Kathie Carlson, Michele (Gab) Willer, Milo Dullum & Robin Huebner

The Foundation helped sponsor the first ever Dickinson High School Hall of Fame class. Inducted into the DHS Hall of Fame were: James Molstre (1980-82); Robin Huebner (1974-76); Michele (Gab) Willer (1978-80), Jess (Herauf) Lehman (2008-11), Jack Carlson (1978-2003) and Milo Dullum (1966-1988). They were inducted at halftime of the DHS homecoming football game on September 8. A Hall of Fame breakfast was held at the new Dickinson Middle School on September 9.