

Home Language Survey

Student Name: _____ Student's Grade: _____

Student's School: _____

The US Office of Civil Rights requires that schools identify possible English Language Learner students during enrollment. This Home Language Survey will be used as a tool to determine if your child is eligible for language support services (ELL). If a language other than English is used by your or your child and your child meets the Limited English Proficient definition, the school may give your child an English Language Proficiency Assessment. The school will share the results of the assessment with you.

What language(s) are spoken at home? _____

What language(s) do you use the most to speak to your child? _____

What language(s) does your child use the most at home? _____

What language(s) did your child learn when he/she first began to talk? _____

List other language(s) that your child has used with a grandparent or caretaker: _____

If available, in what language would you prefer to receive information from the school? _____

Has your child ever been in an English as a Second Language (ESL or ELL) Program? Yes No

Put an X in the boxes on the top line to show the grades your child has gone to school in the United States. Put an X in the boxes on the bottom line to show the grades that your child went to school in another country.

If your child has gone to school outside of the United States:

In which country or countries did your child go to school? _____

Which language or languages did your child learn in school? _____

This form also asks for information used by other programs to help your student in school. You are not required to answer these questions, but if you circle yes or no for questions 1-4, your student may qualify for additional services.

Refugee Student:

NDDPI applies for a Refugee School Impact Grant to provide services for newly arrived refugee students. A refugee student left their home country due to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion and has fled to another country to be resettled. Newly arrived is defined as within the last three years.

1. Would your child be considered a newly arrived refugee student? Yes No

Immigrant Student:

Immigrant students are mentioned specifically in the LEP definition and may qualify for LEP services. Additionally, students who have attended schools in the US for three years or less may qualify for additional services.

2. Would your child be considered an immigrant student? Yes No

If yes, please fill in the Country _____ and US entry date (mm/dd/yy) ____/____/____

(For refugee students, this is the country that you originally fled, not the country that you lived in most recently.)

Native American or Alaska Native student:

Native American and Alaska Native students are mentioned specifically in the LEP definition and may qualify for LEP services.

3. Would your child be considered Native American or Alaska Native student? Yes No
